Karen Adams Bio

Karen Adams is originally from York, is an experienced Yorkshire archaeologist and historian who began her archaeological career in 1986. She founded thePastSearchôin 2001, sharing her passion for local history through illustrated talks, guided walks and historical research. Her work brings Yorkshire's fascinating past to life, revealing the stories behind its people, places and archaeological discoveries.