

Barry Kensett

Barry Kensett is an aircraft designer by trade and worked on many civil and military aircraft from Comet to Harrier but his pride and joy is the Hawk. As a Director of British Aerospace he was responsible for the business management of number of programmes around the world. In retirement he operates his own airliner flight simulator and supports the Royal Aeronautical Society of which he is a Fellow.