

Biography

Christopher Leworthy

After retiring, Chris Leworthy decided to indulge his interest in Military History by reading, visiting and, most importantly, volunteering. After spells at the Churchill War Rooms and the Historic Dockyard, his increasing interest in the air war between 1939-45, led him to be approved as a Guide at the Battle of Britain Bunker at Uxbridge where, during normal times, he would lecture to groups of visitors on the key role played by those at the Bunker. He now conducts talks to various groups such as Probus, U3A and historical gatherings via Zoom.

Chris is married, with two adult children and lives in Berkshire. His other interests include dog walking, gardening, rugby, theatre and trying to avoid watching the news.
