

Ernie Hunter Bio

Ernie is a retired Accountant and Management Consultant who ran his own Europe wide business. Ernie has been involved with Holocaust education for over ten years. He is a founder and the Chair of Northern Holocaust Education Group, is an accredited volunteer Holocaust educator giving talks to schools, museums and civic groups in the UK and Germany. Ernie is a son of a refugee German Jewish mother, who actively confronted the Nazi regime, and a refugee German non-Jewish father who had to flee Nazi Germany because he was a political opponent of the Nazi regime. He is passionate about the relevance of Holocaust education today in standing up against antisemitism, discrimination and racism.
