

John Scotney Bio

John was born in Hull and attended Hymers College.

He worked at British Rail for 35 years, taught English as a second language for 17 years and is a volunteer at 'Open Doors' - this charitable project has been working with refugees, migrant workers and those seeking sanctuary who have been sent to Hull by the Home Office since 2000.

He is Chairman of Hull Civic Society and also a Methodist Preacher.