

Margaret Hanson Bio

Margaret is the eldest of 4 Army children and had 20 addresses and 11 schools by the age of 17. She has worked in hotels ; as a Trainee Manager for Marks and Spencers and on a building site in Germany on the East/West border before the wall went up.

In the late 1950s she studied in London and taught in the East End. She has worked in several Hull schools through the age range and held two Headships specialising in Behaviour Modification.

She is a past President of Hull Womens Literary Society; was a Merchant Navy wife and is a Great Grandmother with a life long interest in what makes us human. She can tap dance and has as a motto: 'They are not long , those days of wine and roses'.

Last but not least, Margaret is a member of Swanland u3a.