

Margaret Hanson Biography

Margaret is the eldest of four Army children and had 20 addresses and passed through 11 schools by the age of 17. She has worked in hotels ; as a Trainee Manager for Marks and Spencers; on a building site in Germany on the East/West border before the wall went up. In the late 1950s she studied in London and taught in the East End of London. She has worked in several Hull schools through the age range including Queens Gardens and held two Headships, specialising in Behaviour Modification.

Margaret is a past President of Hull Women's Literary Society and was a Merchant Navy wife. She is a great grandmother with a life, long interest in what makes us human and can tap dance! Her motto: 'They are not long, those days of wine and roses.'