

Bio

Wendy retired from the Health Service after 34 years and has kept Bees for almost 20 years. She is a Master Beekeeper and currently the Chair of Beverley Beekeepers Association who manage between 12 and 20 colonies local to Beverley. Wendy is involved in the training and education of Beekeepers, locally, regionally and nationally. Her talk will touch on the changing face of beekeeping over the last 150 years or so.