

Swanland u3a

Quiz

The Quiz comprises of 20 General knowledge questions
Please have a pen and paper ready.

When you have finished please write score and when asked to show do so via your camera to the host.

Question 01.

Where is the Queen when she pulls her Christmas Cracker?

Question 02.

Which circus is at the opposite end of Regent Street to Oxford Circus

Question 03.

Who was William Frederick Cody better known as?

Question 04.

Which country was the Christmas tree tradition introduced to Britain from?

Question 05.

Why didn't Cadbury's build any Pubs in Bourneville?

Question 06.

Which artist inspired Brian and Michael's hit 'Matchstalk men and Matchstalk cats and dogs' released in 1992?

Question 7.

Who holds the record for breaking the most land-speed records?

Question 08.

Which Christmas decoration was in short supply in 1987 due autumn storms?

Question 09.

What part of an adult's face are babies said to be most interested in?

Question 10.

What U.S. state did Mount St Helens blow its top in?

Question 11.

What is the world's second largest four-footed animal?

Question 12.

What is the earliest date Easter Sunday can fall on?
The 2nd, 12th or 22nd March.

Question 13.

Why don't PoPONOPHOBICS visit Santa Claus?

Question 14.

Where is and what is Rotton Row?

Question 15.

Which TV programme was originally presented by Christopher Trace and Leila Williams?

Question 16.

Which member of the Royal family owns The Oval?

Question 17.

How many King Georges have ruled Britain?

Question 18.

Who sang with Elaine Paige on the chart topper 'I knew him so well'?

Question 19.

What record does Yorkshire's 'Tan Hill Inn' claim?

Question 20.

What is the better known name of conductor Andreas Ludwig Priwin?

A festive Christmas border featuring evergreen branches, pinecones, red berries, and holly leaves. The border is positioned at the top and bottom of the page, framing the central text. The evergreen branches are dark green and needle-like. The pinecones are brown and textured. The red berries are bright and round. The holly leaves are dark green and glossy.

Merry Christmas and a Happy
New Year.